The M48 Highland Sgian takes the traditional Scottish dagger and gives it a sleek and modern look. This dagger really has a tactical feel to it. It has a 5 1/4" 2Cr13 cast stainless steel blade that has been black oxide coated and has a satin surface grind. The blade has three through holes in it and it goes into a stainless steel guard. The handle is black TPR that is molded to fit comfortably in your hand and it has the traditional M48 logo. A TPU sheath with a polypropylene inner cover is included to house the blade and a double layered nylon strap keeps it firmly in place. This sheath can be strapped on your belt and you are ready to go.
