This folding military knife, designed by Grant and Gavin Hawk, has been dubbed the “Mud Knife” because it features Polyurethane® seals on the pivot and the Hawk-Lock that render it nearly impervious to sand, dirt, water, petroleum products, and—yes—mud. In addition, the knife features a high-carbon 154CM stainless-steel blade for increased hardness and edge retention. The Tungsten DLC (Diamond Like Carbon) coating is non-reflective and provides additional performance. An oversized 5/15-in. pivot shaft enhances the ruggedness and durability of this knife, while the aluminum handles with textured G-10 scales reduces weight. The patent-pending Hawk-Lock® makes the blade extra stable. Includes reversible pocket clip for left- or right-handed carry.
